FAMOUS ENGLISH RACING HORSE IS COMING HERE

LONDON, Sept. 8 (By The Associated Press).—It has been definitely settled that Papyrus, the Derby winner, will go to the United States to race the best American three-year-old this fall. It was announced by C. J. Fitzgerald, agent of August Belmont, who came here to negotiate for the English horse's appearance.

It has been reported that Papyrus might not go to the United States for a match race with the best American three-year-old, as a syndicate had been formed to buy him in order to keep him in England. The report stated that Papyrus would be retired to the stud at the end of the next season.

Steve Donoghue, England's leading jockey, who was in the saddle when Papyrus won the Derby this year, will have the mount in the international race in the United States.

Ben Irish, owner, has agreed not to sell his horse to anyone until after the race at Belmont Park, although he has been offered $200,000 for Papyrus on this side.

Mr. Fitzgerald said he had received a telegram from Mr. Belmont, that the importation of special fodder for the English horse probably could be arranged.

Papyrus will be shipped on the Aquitania which will sail from Southampton, September 22. He will be accompanied by his stablemate, Bargold, and Trainer Jarvis will go with them.

Considerable irregularity developed in the later dealings with selling pressure being exerted against the independent steels and such stocks as American Smelting, Jones Bros. Erie convertible 4s, series A, advanced 1 1/2. Foreign and U. S. Government bonds showed little change.
